

French Language

Certificate Program

This certificate will allow a professional credential in the French language by completing three-years of university level French. Students may complete any of the first four semesters via credit for prior learning, but they must complete French 320 and 325 at the college level. At the completion of French 325, they may choose to take the Global Seal of Biliteracy Exam in order ascertain their level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.
